PAH-MEH Lets Go A Travel Story Told by Alexandra

By Robin Hathaway Rafaelidys

1st Book Library. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 308 pages. Dimensions: 9.2in. x 6.1in. x 0.8in. Here is a unique and wonderful book. PAH-MEH (Lets Go!) tells of the adventures of three Americans traveling in Greece. Loosely based on a trip the author took, in 1998, with her daughter and their neighbors ten-year-old son, we are guided from the mid-west to Athens, parts of northern Greece, and two Greek islands. While the mother is not Greek, Alexandra, the daughter and narrator is, and she takes us into the homes of her Greek family. We share in the celebration of Greek Easter. We taste the foods and learn of traditions. Because this story is so real, the author chose to include real dialogue, which means many of the characters speak in Greek. The Greek is written in a simple phonetic method, which Alexandra explains to the readers in her preface. The English translation follows in parenthesis about 90 of the time. (Once and a while you are left to guess!) The book includes a 500 word glossary of Greek words at the end. The story is exciting and wide ranging. One day we are taken into the tomb of Philip II, the...

It is just one of my personal favorite publications. It is among the most awesome publications I have read. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.

Thorough guide! It's such a very good go-through. It is really simplified but surprises in the 50% from the ebook. You will like how the blogger wrote this ebook.
