The present Hospital building was erected three years since, at a cost of $100,000.00, and will accommodate 500 patients. It is in the proper sense, a general hospital, admitting almost all diseases except small-pox, and is arranged into four departments; namely, Medical, Surgical, Gynaecological and Lying-in, and Ophthalmological and Otological. Terms of admission vary with the accommodations. In the larger, or what are called the public wards, the price is $7.00 per week; and in the private rooms, of which there are a large number, the price is $15.00 per week. There are constantly in the Hospital a considerable number of patients who pay nothing, they being kept as charity patients. The institution has also an arrangement with the Chicago Relief and Aid Society by which 40 beds are kept at the disposal of that Society for the accommoration of such sick poor as its officers may desire to send there. The managing head of this Hosis Mother Legoire. The appointment of the Staff is under the control of the Faculty of the Chicago Medical College. The hospital has an average of about 250 patients constantly, and furnishes complete clinical facilities to students. Medical Staff. Attending Physicians. N. S. Davis. H. A. Johnson.
