Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from John Calvin: Theologian, Preacher, Educator, Statesman The following pages present to the reader a labor of love. Calvin studies, pursued by the author for many years, have created in his mind an ever deepening conviction that the Genevan Reformer was the instrument specially raised up by God for the purpose of saving and preserving to the world the fruits of the reformation, at a time when these were in imminent danger of being frittered away by incompetent leaders. The great genius of Wittenberg had died in 1546, with gloomy forebodings as to the future of the work which he and Zwingli had so successfully inaugurated. His prophetic vision did not deceive him. Soon after his death, the storm of opposition became so virulent as to threaten the very existence of Protestantism. A heart-rending wail went up to heaven: Lord, save us; we perish! Leaders in one compartment of Protestantism, in their anxiety to save at least a few treasures, went so far as to counsel the lightening of the vessel by throwing overboard the very...
