This item is printed on demand - Print on Demand Neuware - Seminar paper from the year 2009 in the subject English Language and Literature Studies - Literature, grade: 1,3, Ernst Moritz Arndt University of Greifswald (Institut für Anglistik und Amerikanistik), course: India from within and without: Rudyard Kipling's Kim & E.M. Forster's A Passage to India, language: English, abstract: To be concerned with Hinduism means to immerse oneself in a world which seems to be so different from our Western world. The question is why one has this feeling Is it just because we combine Hinduism with the Indian subcontinent and hence a spot on earth which is so far away from us Is the great distance the reason why Hinduism feels so exotic Or is it rather the way Hinduism appears in comparison with other world religions Is the religious praxis the reason for perceiving Hinduism as far out Or is it simply the Hindu way of life which seems to be so unfamiliar Is it the Hindu society which is so different from other ones All these questions can be answered in several different ways. They...
