Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Diplomatic Services of George William Erving: Communicated to the Massachusetts Historical Society At a stated meeting of the Massachusetts Historical Society, October 10, 1889, after other proceedings, the President, Dr. George E. Ellis, said that the Society was looking forward to its One Hundredth Anniversary, and that there was a gentleman present whose membership covered precisely half of the hundred years. The Hon. Robert C. Winthrop then said: - If I had followed my impulses, Mr. President, instead of yielding to my discretion, I should have risen at once, after you had finished your introductory remarks, and should not have waited for you to call on me now. I could have added little, indeed, to your tribute to our deceased associate Mr. Amory; but I would gladly have united in doing honor to the memory of President Woolsey, - one of the most accomplished and valuable men whose names have adorned our roll, - and of Dr. Samuel Austin Allibone, whose Dictionary of Authors may be counted among the herculean labors of modern bibliographical literature....
